

community center. Currently the building has no cabinets at all. The center hosts a homecoming dinner every year, a dinner following Sunday services once each month, and other gatherings.

A $500 grant will aid the Audrain County 4-H Clubs in rebuilding the multipurpose arena at the 4-H fairgrounds. The updated arena will be a safer facility for activities like youth rodeos, horse pulls, and horse shows. The project will involve past and present 4-H members, the local young farmers club, the local saddle club, and FFA chapters.

The Williamsburg Community Center received a $500 award to upgrade the electrical wiring in the building. The center was given a steam table which cannot be used until the wiring is improved. Any extra money will be used to purchase chairs.

Kingdom welcomes grant applications from organizations in its service area. Up to four $500 grants are awarded quarterly. The Board of Directors chooses projects that will benefit the largest number of community members.

Submission deadlines in 2009 are June 30, September 30, and December 31. Questions about the grant program may be directed to Jackie Lowe at (573) 386-2241. Application forms may be downloaded on our web site, www.ktis.net, or picked up at the Kingdom business office in Auxvasse.
